

Article IX: Community Relations
Section A: Miscellaneous
Policy 010: Communication with the Board

IX.A.010: Note: This policy has been rescinded by BP 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making. Please see this separate document for updated information.

~~RCC Board shall encourage members of the community to express their opinions and desires either in writing or in person at Board meetings as provided for in Board agendas.~~

~~The Board further recognizes the public's right to information and will provide the means or the periodic, wide circulation of information throughout the district concerning college programs and courses, needs and progress.~~

~~The Board encourages visits to the campus by members of the public.~~

Article IX: Community Relations
Section A: Miscellaneous
Policy 020: College Staff Responsibilities

IX.A.020: Note: This policy has been rescinded by BP 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making. Please see this separate document for updated information.

~~All RCC staff will assist the Board in its efforts to create maximum understanding between the College and the community. The President and administrative staff shall provide leadership and direction (including procedures) to accomplish this purpose.~~

Article IX: Community Relations
Section A: Miscellaneous
Policy 030: Media Releases

IX.A.030: Note: This policy has been rescinded by BP 2430 Delegation of Authority to the College President. Please see this separate document for updated information.

~~All RCC news releases shall be channeled through the President's Office or a designated representative. The RCC Board Chair, and the College President are the official college-spokespersons and may choose to perform that function or delegate it as appropriate.~~

Article IX: Community Relations
Section A: Miscellaneous
Policy 040: Citizens' Advisory Committee

IX.A.040: Note: This policy has been rescinded by BP 2510 Participation in Local Decision-Making. Please see this separate document for updated information.

~~Community members shall be invited to serve as members of advisory committees formed for the purpose of improving RCC's programs and services.~~