

Tuition Waiver for Dependents of Disabled and Fallen Service Veterans 2019-2020 APPLICATION

In recognition of the service and sacrifices of military service personnel and their qualifying dependents, Rogue Community College (RCC) shall waive tuition only for the spouse and children of a qualifying veteran as “last dollar”. This means the student is only eligible for this tuition waiver if tuition is not fully covered by financial aid, state and federal grants, or scholarships. The waiver does not cover books, fees, or other expenses. The last dollar tuition waiver will be provided to the spouse and children who apply prior to age 24 (including adoptive and step-children) for all members of all branches of the United States Armed Forces or United States Coast Guard.

| Guidelines   | Official Use Only               |                          |
