

Dual Enrollment

Rogue Community College and Oregon State University

Student's Name (print) _____ RCC Student ID# _____

Rogue Community College (RCC) and Oregon State University (OSU) have signed a consortium agreement (academic partnership). This means a student may dual-enroll at both institutions during a certain term and have his/her combined credit load serve as a basis for establishing financial aid eligibility. Under this agreement, student financial aid eligibility will be processed by his/her "HOME institution" (where officially admitted, are currently working toward the completion of an aid-eligible academic program, and maintaining at least half-time enrollment). His/her "HOST institution" (where credits are being taken to transfer back to the HOME institution for program completion) will ensure that no over-award exists.

If you intend to pursue dual enrollment at RCC and OSU leading to a certificate or degree program and wish to have your combined term enrollment evaluated for aid eligibility, review this form carefully. If you can answer "Yes" to each statement, complete the form and submit it to Rogue Central Services no later than the second Wednesday of a term or prior to payment. If you cannot answer "Yes" to each statement, we invite you to pursue aid through OSU as your HOME institution. If you are dual enrolled but do not submit this form in a timely manner RCC will pay aid based on your RCC-only enrollment as of the later of the drop deadline (second Wednesday of the term) or prior to payment.
