You must meet one of the following criteria before receiving federal financial aid:

- Have a high school diploma (in Oregon, “modified” is eligible but “extended” is not), or
- Eligible alternative: Complete high school via homeschool (and, until 18, annual registration with ESD), or
- Have a recognized equivalent:
 - General Education Development certificate (GED), or
 - State-recognized test and certificate of high school completion (not applicable in Oregon), or
 - Associate’s degree that is fully transferrable to a bachelor’s degree, or
 - Documentation of excelling in high school (not applicable in Oregon or for Certificate students), or
- Grandfathered-in eligibility: If, prior to July 1, 2012, you attended a Title IV eligible program* and
 - met minimum scores on an approved Ability to Benefit (ATB) test, or
 - completed at least 6 program credits (If not at RCC, must be certified by your prior college.)
